

After a club application has been accepted by the committee and the membership fees have been paid in full a club will be awarded provisional membership to IMMAA.

Provisional club members will have access to...

- Apply for Garda Vetting for coaches*
- Participate in IMMAA coaching courses*
- IMMAA's public liability insurance cover

*Providing each applicant has purchased an individual IMMAA membership

Provisional Clubs and their members will not have access to...

- Represent Ireland at international events such as IMMAF tournaments
- Participate in the National MMA Championships
- Participate in the IMMAA Squad training sessions
- IMMAA courses such as MMA Refereeing/ Judging
- A vote at the IMMAA AGM/EGM

Provisional Status Duration & Requirements for Full Affiliation:

A club will remain a provisional IMMAA affiliated club for a minimum period of three months, after which, once all the following conditions have been met, it will become a fully affiliated IMMAA club:

- All coaches working with under 18s and/or vulnerable adults have received Garda vetting clearance through IMMAA.
- All club coaches have successfully completed an IMMAA coaching course.
- The club and its coaches have not committed any actions that could potentially bring the association into disrepute.

Once the above conditions have been met, the club will then become a fully affiliated IMMAA club.
